NORMAN DORSEN

Captioned individual has not been the subject of an investigation conducted by the FBI.

According to information contained in our files, however, one Professor Norman Dorsen was a scheduled speaker at seminars conducted by the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee in September, 1962.

The Emergency Civil Liberties Committee has been cited by the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

The June 25, 1962, issue of the "National Review" contained an article indicating that one Professor Norman Dorsen, New York University School of Law, prepared the brief submitted to the Supreme Court of the United States by the American Civil Liberties Union requesting the Supreme Court to review the conviction of Robert Soblen.

Dr. Robert Soblen was convicted of conspiracy to commit espionage in United States District Court, New York, New York, on July 13, 1961, and was sentenced to terms of ten years and life imprisonment.

The "New York Times," in its issue of June 15, 1962, stated that Norman Dorsen, Professor, New York University Law School, was one of 25 professors who endorsed Justice Hugo Black's dissent from the Supreme Court's decision requiring the Communist Party to register with the United States Government. NOTE: Per request of Mrs. Mildred Stegall, White House Staff.

Norman Dorsen

On November 20, 1963, a news release was issued by the organization, Student Committee for Travel to Cuba, critical of United States policy restricting travel to Cuba. The release states that the Federal Government was attempting to intimidate the organization by indicting three students who had visited Cuba on the first trip sponsored by the organization. It pointed out further that the action by the Federal Government was opposed by many leading scholars in the Nation and included among those listed was one "Norman Dorsen of N. Y. U." (100-439769-714)

The central files of the FBI contain no additional pertinent derogatory information which may be identical with captioned individual.

The fingerprint files of the Identification Division of the FBI contain no arrest data identifiable with the above individual based upon background information submitted in connection with this name check request.
